

Lyrics

Elizabeth Campisi "Have Faith"

Written by Elizabeth Campisi, Don Koch, and Bernadette Capuyan

It started out like any other day
An ordinary girl with hopes and dreams to last a lifetime
But then the news that shakes her perfect world
She's gonna be a mother to her own little girl
She hides the shame
And that's the way life is
Sometimes the cards you hold are just too hard to play
But love is always waiting, even when you've lost your way

Chorus:

So have faith
Be strong
Be brave and hold on
Even though you may not know what lies ahead
Have faith
Be strong
Be brave and hold on
You won't regret the choices you've made
To have faith

It's finally here this long awaited day
A precious child from Heaven's come
And Faith is her name
A mother's pride replaced a mother's pain
She fights back all the tears from joy that can't be contained
There's no more shame
And that's the way love is

Repeat Chorus)

So there's one thing in this world that's always true
It's that love's defining moment is always waiting for you.

So have faith
Be strong
Be brave and hold on
Even though you may not know what lies ahead
You gotta have faith
Be brave and hold on
You won't regret the choices you've made
So have faith
Be strong
Be brave and hold on
Even though you may not know what lies ahead
So have faith
Be strong
Be brave and hold on
You won't regret the choices you've made
To have faith. To have faith.