You are Lord, you are God over everything
You are master, redeemer you are my King
You are meant to be worshiped for who you are
You are fullness of life to the empty heart
You're the day your the night your the morning star
And I'm not worthy of anything, but

Chorus

When I sing your name
Your Mercy comes to me
Falling down like rain
Changing everything
With love I can't explain
It's heaven's sweet refrain
When I sing your name

You are Savior, Messiah who chose to save
You're the Hope you're the life from an empty grave
You are word you are song you are everything
Now I come to you open and unafraid
Knowing well there is nothing that I can say
Cuz I'm not worthy of anything, but

Chorus

Light of the world
Lamb of God
Lover of my soul
You are Faithful and true
You are Lord of all
And I stand in awe
